President's Message:

Dear Members and Lovers of Scottish Terriers,

Our 2019 Specialty is here!! Hope to see everyone Friday September 8th at the Kalamazoo Kennel Club for the Scent Work Seminar hosted by Scottish Terrier Club of Michigan and taught by Barbara Gibson. Scent Work is an exciting event to do with your dog. I'm signing up-you should too.. Take this opportunity to learn a new skill with your dog, they will love it.

Friday night is our puppy match, with Jan Craig as our judge. Come see the puppies , stay for our Hospitality and browse our fabulous Bazaar table.

Saturday September 9th is our Specialty Show. Sonya Neve will be our Sweeps judge and Kari Hill will be regular class judge . We will Play Chuck a Duck (fun game for all, it like a 50/50). Stay for our after show Luncheon following our Regular Class Show (Reservations required - see website or below for details). We will have the drawing for our raffle items)!

Anyone wishing to help with the specialty, please contact any Board member (emails are listed on the website)

Also, several members have puppies for sale, please contact Susaan Callender larkspurhill@gmail.com

*Sincerely,
Regina Hess
President STCM*

Dear S.T.C.M. Members and friends:

The Scottish Terrier Club of America is offering a $2000.00 grant to three regional clubs to help in the battle to end bladder cancer in our breed. Early detection is the name of the game.

The Scottish Terrier Club of Michigan wants to be one of the three clubs. We are proposing a screening in the fall of 2020, possibly in conjunction with our specialty. There will be much more information coming out to you in the year ahead.

If you own a Scottie 6 years or older, plan on coming to this event. If you have any questions you may email me at larkspurhill@gmail.com.

Thank-you, and here is to good health to you and your dogs.
